

Paving the Way to Safer Communities

P.A.V.E. Partnership to Address Violence through Education

401.464.2004

www.paveri.org

info@paveri.org

P.A.V.E offers a variety of programs for children, parents and educators.

- After School Programs for targeted youths
- In-Classroom Curriculum—such as How Stereotyping Leads to Conflict, Violence and its Effects, How you can help Stop Bullying, and more.
- Professional Development—CEU's for teachers
- Community Presentation—workshops for parents, other professionals, and law enforcement.
- Referral services for victims or targets of bullying and other forms of youth violence.

Lt. John Reis (retired) has seen it all, and more, and his programs teach children how to deal with youth violence issues, including bullying, relationship violence and negative peer groups.

“Paving the Way to Safer Communities”

Programs funded in part by the RI Juvenile Officers Association

Youth Violence and Negative Peer Groups Is Your Child at Risk?

Violence Free - The Way To Be... The Way for Me!

All kids need friends, but hanging around with the wrong group of friends can lead to BIG trouble.

We all want the best for our kids, but sometimes, they make choices that can ruin their future. Do you know the warning signs and prevention and intervention techniques?
Youth violence is on the rise in this country and your child may be at risk.